JOE'S CORNER...

True Solidarity. On September 9th we celebrated our 4th Annual Battle of The Locals. Beyond the celebration of GCC/IBT DC3 winning the trophy and charity check of $750; beyond the axe throwing; beyond the food and drink; there was a true display of solidarity. The Local Credit Union serves members of more than 50 union locals across Southeast Michigan. The goal four years ago was to make introductions and share a common purpose. Why is that important? Below is a picture of UAW Local 228 Financial Secretary Al Doss and BAC Local 2 Business Agent Jim Ritchie. Al Doss and Jim Ritchie met at The Battle of The Locals. Al Doss has stood with brothers and sisters of Macomb County Trades in picket lines in Shelby Township while Jim has stood in picket lines for UAW Local 228 at the paint plant in Mt. Clemens. A friendship developed and intellectual resources have been shared. When the UAW Region 1 requested support to help the GM UAW Locals; they asked the leadership of their locals for ideas. Al knew the BAC Local 2 had an inflatable Fat Cat and a call was made to Jim. True Solidarity. Top: The Local Mobile at Heat and Frost Insulators Local 25 picket line.
